

The Emerald Grande at HarborWalk Village: Oil Spill Update

Many people are asking how they can help us in the Gulf Coast, and one of the easiest ways to assist us is to continue to visit, to bring friends and recommend our area as a top vacation destination. With so many things to see and do along the Gulf Coast, now is the time to enjoy our warm southern hospitality and world class charm. In case you didn't know, combining nearby Choctawhatchee Bay and the Destin Harbor, over 70 percent of our surrounding waters remain untouched. We are still able to provide a memorable boating and fishing experiences from any or our docks or at Legendary Marine which is located on Choctawhatchee Bay. Norriega Point beach remains sparkling clean, unaffected and available for exploration, relaxation, and weddings. HarborWalk Charters can offer fun filled trips from exciting adventures to relaxing sunset cruises. At HarborWalk Village, every night is jam packed with live music with more than thirty live bands weekly to dine and dance to. Savor the sights and sounds every night at HarborWalk Village. Families can explore other area attractions including water parks, YOLO boarding, amusement parks, aquariums, Le Grande Cirque and parasailing.

The Emerald Grande has beautiful, spacious one, two and three bedroom suites, and all the comforts of home. Dine your way through over 16 restaurants and clubs that stir-up a good time daily at HarborWalk Village. From the world-famous Commander 's Palace to the fun loving and colorful eateries such as the nationally acclaimed The Shed BBQ and Blues Joint or local's favorite Harry T's – we will still serve fresh seasonal products and have created tasty menus that include all the fresh seafood you have come to expect. If green is more your thing, take a swing at our world class golfing at Regatta Bay, which is a short drive from Emerald Grande. The Spa at Emerald Grande promises to nurture and pamper you with treatments and fitness classes that will leave you feeling rested, rejuvenated and relaxed. Our wedding venues are spectacular at Emerald Grande, Voted Best Wedding Venue in 2008-2009 by Emerald Coast Magazine. Options for weddings include our airy light filled outdoor decks and plazas. Home to the most stunning sunset on earth our decks are the most photographed on the Gulf Coast. Planning an event? Try our special private dining rooms at Commander's Palace or spacious indoor well appointed ballrooms at Emerald Grande. We have the perfect setting for your special day. From ball gowns to board rooms, our special event team can produce a flawless event from 20 to 200 guests. We are open for your business as usual, which means your pleasure, and will continue to do so.

Our team is working together to proactively protect our shoreline and surrounding areas. We treasure our coastline and value the men and woman of the fishing community that are at the heart of this challenging time.. Our efforts will continue beyond the clean-up and restoration, we will also work diligently to support the rescue efforts of any marine or wildlife that has been affected, HarborWalk Village is home to Alaqua Animal Rescue, who has permanently donated space as a resident of HarborWalk Village. We will be aggressively raising funds to help save animals affected.

We are encouraging visitors to continue to enjoy our area and support our local merchants and restaurants. We are hosting a season full of exciting family music events, art festivals, wine and culinary events, adventure excursions, fireworks, patriotic celebrations and specialty boutique shopping.

